

Mukilteo Station

Mukilteo Station provides commuter rail service to Mukilteo and surrounding communities as they travel to Seattle and Everett. It is one part of a larger multi-modal transit center built just east of the existing Mukilteo Ferry Terminal. This phase of construction included adding a platform on the north side of the tracks for passengers and interim parking.

Mode

Commuter rail

Highlights

Construction completed: June 2008

Location: Adjacent to First Street and east of SR 525/Mukilteo Speedway, along the existing rail tracks

Budget: $19.2 million

Funding partners: Sound Transit, FTA

Planning partners: Sound Transit, City of Mukilteo, BNSF, Port of Everett, Washington State Ferries

Consultants & contractors

Preliminary engineering/environmental documentation: Streeter and Associates

Final design: DMJM Harris/HNTB

Construction management: KBA Inc.

Construction: Wilder Construction

Public art: Linda Beaumon

